CMCA Seeks New Volunteers – Be a Part of Art!

The Center for Maine Contemporary Art (CMCA) in Rockport is hosting a Volunteer Recruitment Event on Thursday, September 25, 2008 at 6:00 pm. The event is part of an ongoing effort to recruit new volunteers needed to support CMCA's many contemporary art programs.

Come to CMCA and enjoy refreshments, meet new people, hear about CMCA's current exhibitions and programs, and the many opportunities to become involved. Members of the staff and current volunteers will be on hand to answer questions about CMCA's volunteer program.

Volunteers at CMCA can assist with opening receptions, staff the front desk, help with mailings, education events, and much more. Enrich your life as you help one of Maine's most exciting non-profit art venues fulfill its mission. Volunteers enjoy many benefits such as thank-you gifts, meeting interesting people from all over, access to special events, and more.

The event will also be an opportunity to meet Kat Richman, CMCA's new Volunteer Coordinator.

Please join us at CMCA on September 25th. Call Kat at CMCA at 207-236-2875 x306 by September 23rd if you can join us.
